Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my sincere interest in the Analyst position at Macquarie Asset Management, as advertised. Armed with a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science and nearly ten years of experience in launching and growing small businesses, I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to bring my analytical and strategic skills to your esteemed team.

Throughout my career, I have honed my ability to perform in-depth analyses, identify trends, and present key performance metrics. While my background may differ from traditional finance paths, my experience in the dynamic field of small business has equipped me with a unique perspective and a proven track record of driving growth through strategic planning.

In my previous roles, I actively engaged in refining strategy, tracking progress, and presenting insights to senior leadership. This experience, coupled with my strong interpersonal and communication skills, positions me as a valuable asset to contribute to Macquarie's strategic initiatives.

I am particularly drawn to Macquarie's commitment to creating lasting value, and I am excited about the prospect of working on diverse projects that drive key strategic decisions to grow the global platform. My adaptability, analytical acumen, and passion for contributing to meaningful outcomes align seamlessly with the values of Macquarie Asset Management.

Thank you for considering my application. I am eager for the opportunity to discuss in further detail how my experiences align with the needs of your team. I look forward to the possibility of contributing to Macquarie's continued success.

Yours faithfully,

J. Elliot Miller
